Stand with PACIFIC WOMEN

Pacific women are building a movement for dignity and equality

For more than a decade now, we've been supporting Pacific women to build a movement for gender equality across our region. Christian women leaders and changemakers have begun to break down the barriers that prevented them from becoming decision makers in their churches, schools, governments and communities.

It's vital work. In a region that has some of the highest rates of violence against women and children, and lowest levels of political representation of women in the world, access to leadership opportunities and seats at the tables of power ensures women's voices are heard and acted on. But there's a long way to go.

The slow progress on gender equality in the Pacific tells us that we can't just sit back and wait for change to happen. We need to resource and empower women leaders and changemakers now. Meet some of the Pacific women making change with your support. Meet some of the Pacific women making change with your support.

Now more than ever we need to stand with Pacific women and help resource their movement. Through this appeal we aim to raise $90,000 to support our partners faithfully progressing gender equality through church networks in Fiji, Solomon Islands, Kiribati, Vanuatu and Tuvalu.

Your support will go a long way through the love and determination of Pacific women leaders making powerful change. Please give generously and support UnitingWorld's Spring Campaign here.

From The Word for Today...

Choose the right attitude

‘Think on these things ... and the God of peace shall be with you.’ Philippians 4:8-9 KJV

An author writes: ‘Columbia researcher Sheena Lyengar has found that the average person makes about seventy conscious decisions every day. That’s 25,550 decisions a year. Over seventy years, that’s 1,788,500 decisions. Albert Camus said, “Life is a sum of all your choices.” You put all those 1,788,500 choices together, that’s who you are.

Victor Frankl was a brilliant doctor whom the Nazis imprisoned in a concentration camp. They took away his livelihood, confiscated his possessions, mocked his dignity, and killed his family. They locked him in a cell with no way out... But he found a door that his guards did not know about: “Everything can be taken from a man but one thing: the last of the human freedoms—to choose one’s attitude in any given set of circumstances, to choose one’s own way.” He found that when his circumstances had closed every outer door to him, they revealed to him the doors that matter far more—the doors through which a soul can leave fear and enter into courage, leave hatred and enter into forgiveness, leave ignorance and enter into learning. He discovered that his guards were actually far more imprisoned—by cruelty and ignorance and foolish obedience to barbarism—than he was imprisoned by walls and barbed wire. Some people learn this and become free; some never see it and live their lives as prisoners.’

The difference is in the door you choose or the attitude you choose. That’s why Paul writes: ‘Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, ... honest, ... just, ... pure, ... lovely, ... of good report, ... think on these things’ (Philippians 4:8). Today, choose the right attitude!
